

THE BARD AMBITION (2006)

Samuel: What surprises me most about you Son,
You always know less than I think.
We owe Richard Sheridan a play,
And Richard Sheridan is a dangerous man.

William-Henry: You should never have went to him!

Samuel: This is how it is? Me the child,
And you the parent?

William-Henry: I got the papers for you!
You should have kept them for yourself.

Samuel: You don't keep something like this to yourself,
Something that can make you,
That puts us right back on top.
This is no less than a gift from God
I searched my life to find Shakespeare.

William-Henry: Have you found him?

Samuel: I searched my life.

William-Henry: At last you can stop.
